ONCE AGAIN I AM REVISITING AN article from my first year at the Buddhist Church of Oakland. I think this excerpt is still valid:

This month we celebrate the birth of Shinran Shonin, the founder of our Jodo Shinshu school, with our Fujimatsuri service. Part of what makes Shinran Shonin so special and important are the incredible vigor with which he spread the Dharma and the unique contributions he made to Buddhist doctrine and practice.

Perhaps most importantly, he tapped into a tendency in Buddhism towards equality and non-discrimination. Through the encounter with his teacher Honen, he became aware of a teaching that rejects no one. Whereas in other schools, one’s abilities to meditate and practice determined one’s achievements, the Primal Vow of Amida Buddha embraces precisely those who are incapable of practice. People and groups that were discriminated against during that period in Japan were accepted and encouraged by Shinran, perhaps able to encounter the Buddha Dharma for the first time. This acceptance and acceptance and acceptance and acceptance and...
FOR THE MOMIJI MEETING ON Thurs, April 4, our Rev. Bridge will started us off with a 10:00 a.m. service and talk followed by our usual Yoga class led by Patty, which brought in a packed house at our prior gathering, followed by lunch at 11:30 a.m. At 12:30 p.m. we were treated to a video showing of the documentary, “Going For Broke”, narrated by Mr. George Takei. We had all heard of this well-known movie which took place during World War II. Everyone enjoyed viewing this much publicized film which many of us have had heard about but had not had the opportunity to see.

We are into another fund-raising project at the moment under the able leadership of our talented Renie Grohl. The members spent a day dyeing a light colored yarn with Kool-aid in multiple colors and are now knitting finger-less gloves with the dyed yarns. YES, literally, finger-less gloves which will be sold at our card-selling booth soon.

Per usual, we will be announcing other events coming up in our next publication.

THE 16TH WORLD BUDDHIST Women’s Convention will be held on August 30-September 01, 2019, at the Marriott Marquis in San Francisco.

His Eminence, Monshu Kojun Ohtani, will be the honored guest. Approximately 2,000 delegates from Japan, South America, Canada, Hawaii, and mainland US will be in attendance.

Keynote speakers will be Rev. Yukiko Motoyoshi, resident minister of the Buddhist Church of Stockton, and Professor Keiko Toro, an independent scholar researching Jodo Shinshu Buddhism globally.

Registration forms are in the church office. If you need more information, log onto www.wbwconvention.org. Workshops are filled on a first come first served basis, so please send Patti Hisaoka your registration form early.

Registration is $350, but OBWA voted to subsidize members $150, making it $200.

Hotel rooms are still available at the Marriott Marquis. Please make your own reservation by calling 1-877-622-3056 under the group name “2019 World Buddhist Women’s Convention.”

We encourage and welcome everyone, not just members, to attend.

More than 500 file boxes of BCA history, consisting of 10 pallets of documents and photos are being digitally formatted by UCLA, so that researchers & the general public can have access to the documents and see the photos from back when the BCA was just beginning. I also attended the Presidents Breakfast and was able to meet other first time presidents like myself and some presidents who have a lot of experience and have held the position multiple terms. I enjoyed talking to the other presidents and learning more about other temples from around the US.

As the weather warms up, I just wanted to send out the friendly reminder that our annual Bazaar is fast approaching. I would like to ask everyone’s support by coming out to help. This is one of our church’s biggest fundraising efforts. For those not already signed up for a shift and would like to help out, please contact the church office, Jon Takagaki or myself.

GUESS WHAT? IT’S BAZAAR & Food Festival time! To accommodate our Fire Inspection schedule we will have to change the date for construction:

We need your help on: Thursday, June 13 – 9:00 AM and Saturday, June 15 – 9:00 AM

If you wake-up and say to yourself, “What am I going to do today?” please remember: Thursday, June 13 & Saturday, June 15 – 9:00 AM.
THE INSIDE SCOOP: STUDENTS were led in a lesson by the Jr YBA about what Sangha means to each of us and how our answers related to making ice cream. What could be more delicious? Thank you to Samia Neishi and Glenn Kamita for leading this lesson!

Dharma School would like to thank Gary and Anne Tominaga for the Pets Memorial donation, Craig Lang and Pamela Kato for Josh and Alex’s birthday, and a very belated thank you to Brian Nagata. We are grateful for your dana! Happy Birthday

Upcoming birthdays! A happy birthday to Cynthia Lee!

Potential for Equality and Expression

Tolerance is a hallmark of Jodo Shinshu, and although not unique in the Buddhist tradition, it is still an aspect of the teaching that should be treasured...

Looking back now, how do I feel about this article? First of all, I don’t think my views have changed much - I still feel strongly that Jodo Shinshu Buddhism holds ideals of equality and non-discrimination, although it also acknowledges how difficult it is for us to uphold them ourselves. I am certainly in the grip of the Three Poisons, and I am sure that unconscious bias is often operating as well. Actually, Shin Buddhism is about trying to be aware of this - when I am NOT being Buddha-like. Even so, Amida Buddha embraces me as I am, and in this process perhaps those deeply rooted poisons get uprooted, even a little bit.

I guess I am also impressed with the writing, if I do say so myself. I still have trouble writing my articles (which is why I am again including recycled material) but this reminds me I just need to push through and keep working on expressing myself. Maybe that’s part of the significance of birthdays - the potential is there from the first moment, but it is the combination of infinite causes and conditions both within and beyond myself that allows that potential to blossom. Certainly something worth celebrating! Please join us for our celebration of Shinran Shonin’s birthday on May 19 at 10:00 with our guest speaker, Rev. Yushi Mukojima of the Mountain View Buddhist Temple.
