A fundraiser for the Nichi Bei Foundation

August 3, 2023

Dear Friends,

The Nichi Bei Foundation will enter its 15th year as an innovative nonprofit organization in 2024. We publish the nation's leading Japanese American community newspaper while offering engaging public educational programs. We hope that you will continue your generous support of our remarkable growth while helping us to uplift our community on this year's Day of Giving. Thanks to generous matching donations from The Craig Foundation and the Kinjiro and Eiko Moriguchi Fund, we have been able to raise up to nearly $150,000 in past Nichi Bei Day of Giving efforts, permitting us to support our staff and the popular programs that you enjoy.

On Wednesday, Aug. 9, we will hold our fourth annual Atomic Bomb Commemoration in collaboration with the Friends of Hibakusha and the Japanese American Religious Federation. The remembrance will be held at the Konko Church in San Francisco's Japantown and streamed online at www.nichibei.org/virtual-remembrance.

We also will hold our third pilgrimage to the historic Wakamatsu Tea and Silk Farm Colony — the first large settlement of Japanese in the U.S. — on Saturday, Oct. 7, launching buses from four Northern California cities.

In addition, we have exciting new initiatives in store:

- A new Japanese-language section in the Nichi Bei News, allowing us to bridge the Japanese and Japanese American communities.
- Two new websites, for the Nichi Bei News (www.nichibei.org) and Nichi Bei Foundation (www.nichibeifoundation.org)
- A second Nichi Bei Day with the A's on Saturday, Sept. 2. Watch generational superstar Shohei Ohtani and the visiting Los Angeles Angels, receive a free 1973 A's Throwback Jersey and enjoy a pregame performance by Uzumaru Yosakoi. Discounted tickets at: www.nichibei.org/athletics
- New episodes from the "Nichi Bei Café," a monthly livestream program that spotlights community organizations, individuals, issues and events. The "Nichi Bei Café" is funded by a generous grant from The Henri and Tomoye Takahashi Charitable Foundation. Watch for "Kota's Kitchen," a new cooking lesson from talented staffer Kota Morikawa. You can view past episodes at: www.nichibei.org/cafe
- The publication of "A Nikkei Harvest: Reviewing the Japanese American Historical Experience and Its Legacy" by Arthur A. Hansen with Wayne Maeda, the first book project by the Nichi Bei Foundation.

We hope you will continue to support our work by contributing to the Nichi Bei Day of Giving. Please see the attached form for more information on how you can help and the thank you gifts that await you. Please know that with your support, we will continue to collaborate with other community-based nonprofits along the way. We value your investment in community empowerment.

With our deep appreciation,

Nancy Ukai, Board Chair

Kenji G. Taguma, President
