Guest Speaker:

Rev. Gerald Kango Sakamoto
Rinban

San Jose Buddhist Church Betsuin

Eitaikyo is a Buddhist observance that allows us to remember those who have come before us to share the Nembutsu teachings. Translated, the term means “perpetual chanting of the sutras.”

Rev. Sakamoto transferred from Hawaii Kyodan in 1976 and his first temple assignment with the Buddhist Churches of America was in Oakland, serving over three years.

He also served in White River (WA) and has been at the San Jose Buddhist Church Betsuin since September 1986, currently the Rinban.

Please join us on Sunday, November 12th.

Lunch will be served in the Social Hall following the service.
